PAGASA ILOILO, INDI PA MAKUMPIRMAR NGA BUHAWI GID MAN ANG NAGLABAY SA ILOILO CITY

Indi pa makumpirmar sang Philippine Atmospheric, Geophysical and Astronomical Services Administration (PAGASA) Iloilo nga isa ka buhawi ang nagluntad nga makusog nga paghangin sa pila ka bahin sang Iloilo City, kagab-i, Agosto 8, 2026.

Suno kay Engr. Ferds Ruben, weather forecaster sang PAGASA Iloilo, kinahanglan anay sang aktwal nga visual evidence ukon video nga nagapakita sang rotation sang hangin antes makumpirma nga buhawi ang isa ka insidente.

"Indi pa naman gid naton mahambal nga buhawi kay wala pa kita sang actual video gid sang pag-rotation sang hangin," ang kabahin sang pahayag ni Ruben.

Sa bahin nila, kinahanglan makita ang pagbuyong sang hangin kag ang funnel cloud nga naga-extend halin sa ibabaw padulong sa duta.

Kon wala sang amo nga ebidensya suno sa iya, posible nga ang natabo isa ka downburst, microburst, ukon mabaskog nga hangin nga dala sang severe thunderstorm nga naga-apekto sa amo nga lugar.

Ginpahayag man sang PAGASA nga importante ang verification data sa pag-identify sang insakto nga weather phenomenon.

"For confirmation daan may ara kita dapat sang visual inspection gid nga makita ang rotation sang hangin halin sa ibabaw sang hangin pakadto sa idalum sang duta. Of course my visible rotation gid dapat kita eh, funnel cloud nga naga-extend sa idalum sang kadutaan nga gahulag. Kon wala, kon mga hangin lang possible na sia ya nga down burst na sia ya, microburst, or strong wind nga dala sang severe thunderstorm. So, amo ni nga kinahanglan may verification data gid kita pirme," dugang pa niya

Sa pihak sini, padayon ang pag-monitor sang PAGASA sa mga weather disturbance kag epekto sini sa Western Visayas.

🚨 OMG affected si Mariel Rodriguez-Padilla sa criticisms about her past video statement na nakapasa ng batas si Robin sa loob ng Bilibid kahit hindi Senador.

Kung common sense pala yun, bakit hindi mo in-explain ng maayos nuon pa lang?

Tsaka alam namin na si Robin Padilla ang "inspiration" ng mga legislators or isa sa mga dahilan bakit naipasa ang RA 8294 or yung batas na nagpapababa ng penalty for illegal possession of firearms.

But what you view as "inspiration" eh we view as unethical lobbying and the power of special connections and privileges.

Aminin niyo ni Robin, kaya napasa yung batas na yun eh dahil kilala niya at kilala siya ni then Senator Ramon Revilla Sr.

At kahit sabihin ni Robin sa likod mo na more than 1,000 people benefited from the law, nothing will change the fact that behind the scenes the primary reason why Ramon Revilla Sr. sponsored and pushed for that law is to benefit Robin Padilla.

Dahil high profile ang case ni Robin.

Dahil well connected sa showbiz si Robin.

Dahil galing sa showbiz industry si Ramon Revilla Sr.

That is the same set of circumstance why Robin got a conditional pardon from Fidel V. Ramos and an absolute pardon from Rodrigo Duterte (which explains why diehard Duterte supporter si Robin).

Kaya nga nakatakbo for Senator si Robin eh dahil talagang pinush niyo makakuha ng absolute pardon from Rodrigo Duterte.

Dahil ang pangalan niya ay Robin Padilla.

Kung ibang tao yan, hindi yan papansinin. Hindi mai-inspire ang mga legislators at Presidente na magpasa ng batas or magbigay ng pardon basta-basta.

Kaya yung common sense na sinasabi mo Mariel, special privilege yan para sa mga tulad ni Robin Padilla.

Yuck!

Common sense is most uncommon.
Siyempre, you have to be a legislator to actually make and pass a law. That vlog was made in 2022, when critics were questioning Robin's qualifications. Ang sinasabi nila, "Walang tinapos na pag-aaral. Marunong ba 'yan gumawa ng batas? Eh 'yan ang trabaho ng senador."
So I corrected the point they were trying to make.
When Robin was in Bilibid, his case became closely associated with the issue that RA 8294 addressed—illegal possession of firearms. RA 8294 was enacted in 1997 while he was incarcerated.
Now, IF gamitin natin ang talino na binigay sa atin ng Maykapal... sino kaya ang nag-draft at nagpasa ng bill na naging RA 8294?
Obviously, legislators.

Si Robin nung nasa Bilibid nakapagpasa na ng batas.
So, dun sa mga nagsasabi na hindi siya qualified, I beg to disagree. He is more than qualified.

I realized na ang common sense pala ay hindi ganun ka-common. Lalo na dun sa mga people na sabi nila, sobrang talino nila, ganyan. Na tine-take pala nila lahat literally. Tinake 'yan ng literally. Siyempre hindi ka naman makakapagpasa ng batas kung hindi ka senator, kung hindi ka legislator. Pero siya po kasi 'yung case study niyan.

'TINAKE 'YAN LITERALLY'

Gindepensahan ni Mariel Rodriguez ang iya pahayag sang 2022 nga nakapasar na sang layi ang iya bana nga si Senator Robin Padila samtang napriso ini sa New Bilibid Prison.

"Si Robin nung nasa Bilibid nakapagpasa na ng batas. So, dun sa mga nagsasabi na hindi siya qualified, I beg to disagree. He is more than qualified," suno sa iya sang Mayo 2022.

Sa isa ka video subong nga adlaw, Agosto 9, ginpahayag sang anay TV host nga gin-literal ang iya pahayag kag gin-athag nga ang bulig ni Padilla sa legislative process sang "Robin Padilla Law" ang iya ginatumod.

"Tinake 'yan ng literally. Siyempre hindi ka naman makakapagpasa ng batas kung hindi ka senator, kung hindi ka legislator. Pero siya po kasi 'yung case study niyan," suno kay Rodriguez.

Pahayag niya, ginhimo niya ang video sang 2022 sang nagapadalagan bilang senador si Padilla kag ginakwestiyon bangud gina-alegar nga wala ini sang qualifications nga magserbe sa Senado.

MARIEL RODRIGUEZ DEFENDS ROBIN PADILLA LAW CLAIM, SAYS OLD VIDEO WAS TAKEN LITERALLY

Mariel Rodriguez, wife of Sen. Robinhood Padilla, on Sunday defended her 2022 claim that her husband had already "passed a law" while he was detained at New Bilibid Prison, saying the statement referred to his involvement in consultations on amendments to a law later informally referred to as the "Robin Padilla Law."

In a video posted while in Samal Island, Rodriguez said her earlier remarks were taken literally and clarified that she was referring to Padilla's involvement in the legislative process that led to amendments to the law while he was incarcerated.

"Tinake 'yan ng literally. Siyempre hindi ka naman makakapagpasa ng batas kung hindi ka senator, kung hindi ka legislator. Pero siya po kasi 'yung case study niyan," Rodriguez said.

Rodriguez said she made the 2022 video when Padilla was running for senator and was being criticized for allegedly lacking the qualifications to serve in the Senate.

She recalled saying that Padilla had a degree in criminology and had been consulted

Don Nelson's success as a Hall of Fame Coach is so vast, that it could overshadow his playing career, but it would be a mistake to do so. A favorite of Red Auerbach's, "Nellie" was a tough and reliable all-around player whose tenacity and ability to "think the game" was on full display throughout his 11 seasons with the Boston Celtics, where he was a key member of five championship teams across two eras. His most celebrated moment as a player came in Game 7 of the 1969 NBA Finals against his former team the Los Angeles Lakers, when Nelson converted one of the most famous shots in playoff history—a foul-line jumper which dropped through the basket after hitting the back rim and bouncing several feet straight up. The shot, taken with just over a minute to go in the game and the Celtics clinging to a 103–102 lead, was an essential play in helping secure Boston's 11th NBA title in 13 seasons. Nellie's number 19 was raised shortly after he retired following yet another championship season in 1976. The Celtics extend our deep condolences to Nelson's family, loved ones, and everyone he touched through his rich and impactful life in basketball and beyond.

CLAUDINE BACKS MARIEL OVER ROBIN QUALIFICATION CLAIM

Actress Claudine Barretto on Sunday backed Mariel Rodriguez's 2022 defense of her husband, Sen. Robinhood Padilla, after the old video resurfaced online.

Barretto shared a Facebook post about Rodriguez's video with the caption, "Mariel Termulo-Padilla true👍🙏❤️"

In the 2022 video, Rodriguez argued that Padilla was qualified because he had completed a degree in criminology, had been involved in the amendment of a law while detained at New Bilibid Prison, and had held responsibilities in the Philippine Army.

"Next, si Robin nung nasa Bilibid nakapagpasa na ng batas. Okay? Without even being a senator," Rodriguez said in the resurfaced video.

Rodriguez later addressed the resurfaced video on Sunday, saying her statement that Padilla had "passed a law" while in Bilibid was taken literally. She clarified that Padilla was not a legislator at the time but had been consulted during the process that led to amendments to Presidential Decree No. 1866.

Aug 10, 2026 11:10:58

facebook

Padilla, in a separate Facebook post, defended the claim, saying his imprisonment and the public reaction to his case contributed to the passage of Republic Act No. 8294 in 1997, which amended PD 1866 and reduced penalties for illegal possession of firearms.

Padilla said then-Sen. Ramon Revilla Sr. and then-Rep. Raul Daza used the public reaction to his case to highlight what they considered unjust penalties under the martial law-era decree.

"Malinaw po yan sa sikat ng araw na hindi pa ako senador ay nakapagpasa na ako ng batas," Padilla said.

He compared his role in the measure with the "Eddie Garcia Law," or RA 11996, arguing that a person does not have to be a legislator or the author of a law for a measure to be associated with their cause.

Padilla also said RA 8294 benefited hundreds or thousands of detainees and future defendants by allowing some prisoners serving sentences under PD 1866 to qualify for shorter sentences or release.

ROBIN: LAW AMENDING PD 1866 FOLLOWED CONSULTATIONS WITH PRISONERS

Sen. Robinhood Padilla said the law informally referred to as the "Robin Padilla Law" followed public hearings and consultations with prisoners, including him, while he was detained at New Bilibid Prison.

Padilla made the statement after his wife, Mariel Rodriguez, defended her 2022 claim that he had "passed a law" while in Bilibid, saying her remarks referred to his participation in consultations that led to amendments to Presidential Decree No. 1866.

Padilla identified the measure as Republic Act No. 8294, which amended PD 1866 and reduced penalties for illegal possession of firearms. The law is informally referred to as the "Robin Padilla Law," although it was not officially named after him.

He said lawmakers held public hearings and interviewed inmates at New Bilibid Prison as part of the process of reviewing the law.

"Kasi hindi naman po pepwede na mag-aamyenda ka ng batas na hindi magkakaroon ng public hearing. So diyan po sa isinagawa na

"Kasi hindi naman po pepwede na mag-aamyenda ka ng batas na hindi magkakaroon ng public hearing. So diyan po sa isinagawa na 'yan, nagkaroon po ng mga interview sa amin diyan po sa New Bilibid Prison," Padilla said.

Padilla said thousands of prisoners benefited from the amended law, which lowered the penalties imposed under the previous measure.

"Dahil nagkaroon po ng pagkamulat nung ako po ay nakulong. 'Yan po ngayon ang nagpababa ng mga sintensya ng mga bilanggo na masasabi pong nagkaroon ng hindi katarungan," he said.

He identified then-Sen. Ramon Revilla Sr. and then-Congressman Raul Daza as the lawmakers who authored the measure.

Rodriguez had earlier said her 2022 statement was taken literally, clarifying that Padilla could not actually pass a law because he was not a legislator but had participated in consultations on the measure while incarcerated. Independent fact-checks have likewise noted that Padilla was not a legislator and that RA 8294 was enacted by Congress, while the "Robin Padilla Law" label is informal.

Seven years have passed since we said goodbye, but not a day goes by that we don't remember you, Tatay.

Today, on your 7th death anniversary, we honor your life and the legacy you left behind. As former Mayor Mansueto "Mansing" Malabor, you dedicated your life to serving the people of Iloilo City, especially the poor and those whose voices often went unheard. Your compassion, humility, and unwavering commitment to public service continue to inspire us every day.

Your lessons, your values, and your love for the people remain our guiding light. We strive to carry forward the work you began by serving with sincerity, compassion, and integrity.

Though you are no longer with us, your spirit lives on through every act of service and in the countless lives you touched. We miss you dearly, Tatay, and we will always carry your memory in our hearts.

Forever loved. Forever remembered.

'Eddie Garcia Law' (Republic Act No. 11996). Ito ay naging batas dahil sa sakripisyo ni Tito Eddie Garcia; hindi ibig sabihin nito na naging mambabatas si Eddie Garcia at siya ang naging author at sponsor ng batas, pero pangalan niya ang nakapagpasa ng batas.
Ganyan din ang punto ni Mariel Padilla sa kanyang pahayag noong 2022... Hindi pa man siya senador noon, ngunit dahil sa kanyang pagkakakulong, pumasa ang batas... Malinaw po 'yan sa sikat ng araw na hindi pa ako senador ay nakapagpasa na ako ng batas.

ROBIN: 'HINDI PA AKO SENADOR, NAKAPAGPASA NA AKO NG BATAS'

Sen. Robinhood Padilla on Sunday maintained that he had already helped get a law passed before he became a senator, citing Republic Act No. 8294, which amended Presidential Decree No. 1866 and reduced penalties for illegal possession of firearms.

In a Facebook post, Padilla said his imprisonment and the public reaction to his case helped spur lawmakers to amend the martial law-era decree, benefiting hundreds or thousands of detainees and future defendants.

"Malinaw po yan sa sikat ng araw na hindi pa ako senador ay nakapagpasa na ako ng batas," Padilla said.

Padilla compared his role in RA 8294 with the "Eddie Garcia Law," or RA 11996, saying a person does not have to be a legislator or author of a law for the measure to bear their name or be associated with their cause.

He said then-Sen. Ramon Revilla Sr. and then-Rep. Raul Daza used the public reaction to his case to highlight what they considered unjust penalties under PD 1866, which helped Bumaha na naman.

Flooding reminds us kung gaano kapalpak ang 6 years na pamumuno ni Digong at ng current administration.

In the 6 years of Digong, he failed to solve the flood problem and give Filipinos a better flood control system. Hindi niya binigyang-pansin ang corruption na nangyayari sa DPWH at nagpatuloy ito sa panahon ni Marcos.

But all in fairness with this current administration, ngayon lang nabuksan ito sa madla at so far, marami na din ang nakakulong. I hope this improvement will continue hanggang mapanagot ang dapat mapanagot.

"Ogie, andiyan ba yang si Betty Renario? Pwede ko ba siyang makausap?"

"Ah eh, Kuya Germs, wala po dito ngayon si Betty, eh."

"Basta pakisabi sa kanya, bakit ibinlaynd item niya yung isang alaga ko? Sabihin mo sa kanya, gusto ko siyang makausap. Hindi pwede yang ganyan." Talagang mataas ang boses ni Kuya Germs that moment.

Pagbaba ng phone, tawa ako nang tawa. Hindi naman si Kuya Germs ang tinatawanan ko, ha? Kundi yung thought na akala ni Kuya Germs, totoong tao si Betty.

St. Martin de Porres (1579–1639), the humble Dominican lay brother of Lima, Peru, never left his monastery of the Holy Rosary.

Yet according to well-attested traditions, God granted him the extraordinary gift of bilocation — appearing in distant lands while remaining physically present in Lima.

Numerous witnesses testified that while Martin continued his ordinary duties of sweeping floors, tending the sick, and serving the poor in Peru, he was simultaneously seen:

- In Mexico City, appearing at the bedside of a desperately ill merchant who had called out for him
- In northern Africa, consoling and assisting those in need
- In China, Japan, and the Philippine Islands, supporting missionaries and the suffering
- Even reportedly in other distant places where his presence brought comfort and healing

When asked how this was possible, the humble brother simply replied:
“If God can multiply loaves and fishes, why can’t He multiply Martin de Porres?”

These accounts were carefully recorded by those who knew him and later examined during the process of his canonization. They reveal not a desire for wonders, but a heart completely given to charity — a charity so great that distance could not limit it.

St. Martin remains a powerful intercessor for the poor, the sick, those facing racial injustice, and all who feel far from help. His life reminds us that God’s love is not bound by space or time.

St. Martin de Porres, humble servant of God, pray for us. Amen! 🙏

In 2010, Spanish citizen María Ángeles Durán notarized a document declaring herself the owner of the Sun, claiming she had found a loophole in international space law.

She threatened to charge people for using solar energy and pledged to direct the proceeds toward public welfare. Her claim had no legal standing because international treaties prohibit the appropriation of celestial bodies, and eBay later banned her attempts to sell plots of the Sun.

Both have been with BGYO this year.

At nakaupo lang ako dito awaiting for BINI and BGYO na magsama sila ulit besides that and else more.

It's too bad that Pinoy Pride will never be for everybody. Hindi talaga maikakaila na mapiliin at mapanlinlang talaga ang mundo kahit saan at kailan. Lalo pa pag politics and governance yan.

Just make sure na pag may SBINI19 collab na ulit, people will never regret it yet dislike it. Ginusto't kinailangan niyo yan.

Pinagsikapan ng ABS ang BINI at BGYO and then defiance and resistance left and right came. Sayang lang yung parehong "Mabuhay" at "Thank You Po" na mga bati nila sa atin.

I'm disappointed that all and everything has to be this way. You're all not helping.

JUSTICE FOR TUPAC, 30 YEARS LATER

Nearly three decades after the k*lling of #rap icon Tupac Shakur, the trial of the only person charged in connection with his 1996 m*rder is set to begin.

Duane “Keffe D” Davis, who was charged in 2023, is accused of orchestrating the k*lling and providing the m*rder weapon. #Prosecutors do not allege that Davis fired the shots that killed Shakur.

Shakur was f*tally wounded in a drive-by shooting near the Las Vegas Strip in September 1996. He was 25.

NAT'L FLOOD MANAGEMENT PLAN, ACCOUNTING NG FLOOD CONTROL FUNDS, ISINUSULONG NI SEN. KIKO

Ipinanawagan ni Sen. Kiko Pangilinan ang pagbuo ng komprehensibong national flood management plan at pagsasagawa ng full accounting sa public funds na nakalaan para sa flood control projects.

Kasunod ito ng patuloy na pag-ulang dulot ng pinalakas na Habagat sa ilang bahagi ng Metro Manila at kalapit na probinsya.

"Kahit gumastos tayo ng bilyon-bilyon, pero kung walang pagkakaugnay-ugnay ang ating flood control management plan, lulubog at lulubog pa rin ang ating mga kalsada at mga bahayan," ayon sa senador.

"Dapat malinaw kung saan ito napunta at kung ano ang naging resulta. Hindi pwedeng may proyekto sa papel pero kapag umulan, binabaha pa rin ang mga tao," dagdag ni Pangilinan.

'PAPUNTA NA TAYO SA EXCITING PART'

Tila nagbabala si PBA courtside reporter Apple David kasunod ng paalala niyang natutunton umano maging ang personal at dump accounts sa social media.

"Too late to delete comments now. I'll see you guys soon," saad niya.

Hindi idinetalye ni David pero matatandaang nakatanggap siya ng batikos dahil sa relasyon nila ng 18-year-old Letran Knights guard na si Chad Gammad.

May pagka8080 rin ang gumagawa ng mga fakenews para i-promote si Sara!

Hindi po totoo ang kumakalat na litrato ni Sara at Alex Eala na may caption na "VP Sara Duterte kinongrats si Alex Eala sa Mubadala DS Open."

Sa edited photo, makikita na mas matangkad pa si Sara!

Hindi ito posible dahil sa totoong buhay, 5'9" ang height ni Alex samantalang 5'5" lang si Sara!
